

Wine Styles of Italy

with Andrew Corrigan MW & Paula Tewksbury

Italy is the world's largest wine producer. Wine is made in every region of the country and in a bewildering range of styles. Much wine is made for local consumption and is sold in bulk. Some wines have been exported in high volumes and sold cheaply – such as the pink light frothy red Lambrusco and the fruity sweet lightly sparkling wine Spumante. Unfortunately many consumers only know these wines from Italy or perhaps rustic rough local reds. The world of fine wine in Italy is extensive. Fine reds from Piemonte (Barolo, Barbera and others), Tuscany (Chianti, Brunello and others) have seen new styles (called "Super Tuscans") and have been joined by a new generation of classy whites – Soave, Pinot Grigio and others.

Italian varieties are refreshingly different to mainstream French and German styles. The Italian varietals are gaining popularity in Australia and the USA – Pinot Grigio, Sangiovese, Barbera, Nebbiolo and others.

Brisbane is most fortunate to have one of Australia's most experienced educators and wine judges. Andrew is the tutor for the Institute of Masters of Wine and a Senior Wine Judge in Melbourne and Brisbane, wine columnist for various newspapers and magazines and presenter of Table Talk for ABC Radio. Paula a wine Educator and Director of All About Wine and the Brisbane Fine Wine Festival. Together they promise the class to be an extremely enjoyable and educational evening, with Super Tuscans, lots of comparisons to make, debate and social interaction. Do join us.
